

PRACTICE SURVEY

What is the #1 reason you don't practice consistently (5-6 days per week)?

- a. I don't feel like it.
- b. I don't understand what or how to practice.
- c. I am too busy; my schedule doesn't allow time for me to practice.
- d. I can play as well as I want to even when I don't practice.
- e. I have no desire to play the piano.
- f. I don't like my assignments.
- g. My assignments are too hard.
- h. I don't see any reason to practice if there's not an upcoming event to play for.
- i. I completely forget about practicing during the week.
- j. There's not enough of a reward for me to feel motivated to practice more.
- k. It's not worth my time – I'd rather be doing other things.
- l. Other _____

What is the #1 reason you practice consistently (5-6 days per week)?

- a. I love playing the piano and want to get better.
- b. I see daily practicing as a way to think about God and offer praise to Him.
- c. To make my teacher happy.
- d. So I don't get in trouble with my parents.
- e. I want to honor God by being diligent and faithful with the opportunity He's given me.
- f. I want to show appreciation to my parents for the money and time they are investing in my music education.
- g. I anticipate being involved in music for many years and want to learn as much as I can while I have the opportunity.
- h. So that I can earn rewards for practicing and completing my assignments.
- i. I want to learn new pieces and play them well at music events.
- j. It's part of my daily schedule; I just do it whether I feel like it or not.
- k. Other _____

Additional Comments:

Signed _____ Date _____